

Gardening Tips From Our Members

Add color in shady areas with caladiums.

There are many beautiful shades of bulbs to choose from and they will reward you with colorful foliage from late May until September.

They require little work - just plenty of shade and moisture. Planting them in pots makes watering them easier and you can move them around to find the perfect spot.

Try some caladium bulbs and your shady you will bloom with color and happiness.

Submitted by Marilyn Slack, GGC Corresponding Secretary