

Gardening Tips From Our Members

Enjoy Your Christmas Poinsettias

Enjoy your Christmas poinsettias and keep them alive a long time! Keep them in an area with consistent temperature and out of drafts. When the foliage begins to die, allow them to become dry. Cut them back and plant in your garden in late March.

Submitted by Lorene Junkin, Master Gardener